Are you looking for space and a good location for your family? Then this property right in the centre of Bigastro is well worth taking a closer look at.~~It features a large open terrace accessed from the kitchen, west-facing and perfect for enjoying the afternoons, as well as a front terrace accessed from the living room, east-facing, ideal for making the most of the morning sun and enjoying open views.~~The property offers plenty of space: four generous bedrooms that work equally well for a large family or for those who need a home office or playroom. The living area is well laid out, with a spacious living-dining room and a separate kitchen. There is a full bathroom, with the added advantage of being able to renovate it to suit your own taste if needed.~~Located on the second floor (no lift), in a quiet yet very central area, with all services just a short walk away.~~A comfortable, bright home with real space, right in the heart of the town. If this sounds like what you’re looking for, feel free to come and view it with no obligation.~
